TEACHING PROFILE

Teaches Mathematics (high school level), French and English, as well as software engineering (Functional Programming in Scala, Domain-Driven Design, Human-Machine Interfaces, Apache Spark). Open to both private tutoring and classroom lectures. Also a software engineer with over a decade of experience in functional programming, distributed systems and software architecture — translating industry practice into clear, hands-on lessons.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor — Eductive Lille 🏠

Higher education, Lille, France

Guest lecturer for software engineering students, combining lectures with hands-on labs

- Functional Programming in Scala — pure functional programming principles, algebraic data types and idiomatic Scala
- Domain-Driven Design — modeling complex business domains, bounded contexts and ubiquitous language
- Human-Machine Interfaces — core principles of interactive systems and UX/UI design
- Distributed Processing with Apache Spark — big-data processing and distributed computing fundamentals

Teacher — Home / Remote 🏠

Private tutoring or classroom lectures

- Mathematics — high school level
- Languages — English and French
- Programming — Scala, Python, Haskell, C and Java

WORK EXPERIENCE

Software Engineer — Meltwater 🇺🇸 (Remote)

January 2022 – Present

- Maintain an application that calculates engagement metrics (likes, shares, comments) across social sources (Twitter, Facebook, Reddit) and feeds results into a downstream processing pipeline
- Introduced the team to approval testing and functional design practices
- Co-led the migration of CI/CD from Drone to GitHub Actions; helped migrate infrastructure from AWS to Azure

Kotlin Python Kafka PostgreSQL AWS Azure Docker Kubernetes Terraform

Software Engineer — Colisweb 🇫🇷

September 2016 – December 2021

- Helped establish a functional-programming, domain-first mindset across the team
- Co-designed and co-initiated the transition from a Ruby monolith to autonomous, high-performing Scala microservices
- Designed, developed and maintained Scala services using Functional Programming, Domain-Driven Design, Hexagonal Architecture and CQRS/Event Sourcing
- Set up CI/CD process and deployment infrastructure with Docker, Kubernetes, AWS and GitLab CI
- Supervised two interns through their end-of-studies internships, helping them become quickly productive

Scala Ruby PostgreSQL Kafka RabbitMQ AWS GCP Docker Kubernetes Terraform

Software Developer (Apprenticeship) — Vekia 🇫🇷

March 2014 – August 2016

- Wrote specifications, developed and tested human-computer interfaces using Test-Driven Development
- Set up the technical stack for upcoming projects; developed and maintained cross-cutting tools (specification, development, testing, documentation)

Java GWT PostgreSQL Spring Boot Jenkins
